

Imagining

the debut performance is ...Sound Strong and a Punch Through Space.

Slicing through the air like a reverberating acoustic sword.

Known for his Guitar play, slice showed off a plethora of different style and technique for the morning on viewers at the L.A. County Marie Kerr Park Open air concert in 2017.

Decisive and concrete in this live performance.

Sound in other ways, Slice is versed in easily over ten different instruments rather it be the drums, piano, strings, bass, or classic crowd favorite acoustic guitar.

Home rooted and In love with Sound, he loves and knows what he does, which is just that.

Sound. Slicing through the air's waves with different tones and fusions to change people inside and...when they dance...out. Take a listen find out for yourself...
